Hospice of Frederick County has grown in size and scope with its compassionate end-of-life care. Nevertheless, our focus remains unchanged: to honor each person's journey through illness or grief with dignified care, compassionate support and gentle guidance.

Charitable support always has, and always will, be vital to assuring that anyone in our community can receive hospice care and bereavement support, regardless of ability to pay.

Thank you for your support.

Care. Comfort. Hope.

AN INVITATION

Please consider becoming a member of The Ambassador Club, a network of caring citizens whose philanthropic support helps Hospice of Frederick County continue to honor each patient's journey through illness or grief, with dignified care, compassionate support and gentle guidance.

Your gift—in combination with others like it—helps provide the vital funds needed to offset the non-reimbursable expenses at our Kline Hospice House and to support our extensive bereavement program, veteran services and music therapy offered at no charge to anyone in Frederick County.

Chances are someday, you or someone you love will need the services of Hospice of Frederick County. When that time comes, you can take comfort knowing that you contributed today to ensure that end-of-life care and grief support programs are there when you need them.

Your gift stays right here in Frederick, and your dollars will go to work immediately, helping to make some of life's most difficult times more bearable.

Together we can make an unfamiliar journey, one of care, comfort and hope.

For more information on The Ambassador Club, please contact the Hospice office at 240-566-3036.
