If you thought you were dying, what would matter most? This Frontline documentary follows renowned New Yorker writer and Boston surgeon Atul Gawande as he explores the relationships doctors have with patients who are nearing the end of life. In conjunction with Gawande’s best-selling book, Being Mortal, the film investigates the practice of caring for the dying and shows how doctors are often untrained and uncomfortable talking about chronic illness and death with their patients.

Interpreters are available by advance request. Please call 240-566-4370 no later than Wednesday, October 7 to request an interpreter.
